EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Brandon Michaels Group of Marcus & Millichap has been selected to exclusively market for sale 402 E 1st Street, a 6,856 square foot mixed-use retail and apartment property situated on 0.09 acres of land (3,730 SF) located less than 0.5 miles from the beach on the southeast signalized corner of E 1st Street & Elm Avenue in the Arts District of Downtown Long Beach, CA.

402 E 1st Street is currently 100% occupied by a mix of ground floor retail tenants and second floor apartment tenants. The ground floor is made up of three (3) retail units with frontage along both E 1st Street and Elm Avenue, totaling 3,278 square feet (an average 1,093 square foot per unit). The tenants are a synergistic mix of internet resistant and daily needs uses. On average, the retail tenants are paying $3.11/SF per month (or $10,198.51 monthly) on NNN leases. The retail tenants have an average remaining lease term of 2.73 years with staggered lease expirations and no outstanding options to extend.

The second floor is made up of three (3) large one and two bed units averaging 1,034 square feet per unit. The residential tenancy is paying an average of $2,519 per month (or $7,558.35 total). Together the property brings in $17,756.86 monthly, or $2.78/SF. With its strategic location and potential for growth, this mixed-use gem stands as a promising investment opportunity in the heart of Long Beach.

The subject property benefits from excellent visibility and frontage at the signalized corner of E 1st Street and Elm Avenue, with approximately 50 and 70 feet of linear frontage, respectively. Because of its central location in the Arts District of Downtown Long Beach and proximity to the Beach both E 1st Street and Elm Avenue are highly trafficked pedestrian corridors with a walk score of 96, a "walker's paradise". The property sits well positioned near a variety of Long Beach staples including the Long Beach Convention and Entertainment Center, Sports Area, Promenade, Aquarium of the Pacific, among so many others.

LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA

Long Beach, located in Southern California, is a vibrant coastal city within the Los Angeles metropolitan area. Approximately 20 miles south of downtown Los Angeles, Long Beach is well-connected via major freeways including the I-405, I-710, and I-605, offering seamless access to nearby cities such as Palos Verdes to the West, Los Angeles to the north, and Orange County to the east. The city's strategic coastal position includes the Long Beach Airport (LGB), providing convenient domestic travel options. Known for its diverse and dynamic atmosphere, Long Beach blends urban sophistication with a relaxed beach-town vibe. It boasts a rich cultural scene, a strong sense of community, and an economy bolstered by the Port of Long Beach, one of the world's busiest shipping ports. The area features a mix of residential neighborhoods, business districts, and recreational spaces, making it attractive to both residents and businesses.

Key points of interest include The Queen Mary, a historic ocean liner turned hotel and museum offering tours, dining, and special events, and the Aquarium of the Pacific, a renowned facility showcasing marine life from the Pacific Ocean. The Long Beach Convention & Entertainment Center hosts various conventions, trade shows, concerts, and sporting events, while Shoreline Village offers waterfront shopping, dining, and entertainment with scenic harbor views. The Pike Outlets provide a shopping and entertainment district featuring retail stores, restaurants, a cinema, and a Ferris wheel. Transportation options in Long Beach are extensive, including the Metro Blue Line (now A Line) connecting to downtown Los Angeles, numerous bus routes, and bike-friendly infrastructure, ensuring easy commutes and accessibility for both residents and businesses.

Downtown Long Beach is a bustling urban center characterized by its modern skyline, historic architecture, and vibrant nightlife. Notable attractions include the East Village Arts District, a creative hub with galleries, art studios, and eclectic shops, and Pine Avenue, a lively street known for its diverse dining options, bars, and nightlife. Promenade Square is a public space hosting community events, markets, and outdoor activities, while the Long Beach Waterfront offers scenic areas perfect for walking, biking, and waterfront dining with stunning marina views. Recent mixed-use developments have added upscale apartments, condominiums, and retail spaces, enhancing the urban living experience.
